Celebrate Lucy Maud & Anne at the Centre June 14

Charlottetown – Get Anne-imated in Charlottetown June 14! Celebrate the 100th anniversary of Anne of Green Gables the novel with a day full of fun for the family at the Confederation Centre of the Arts. Everyone is invited to a BBQ complete with ice cream & bright red drinks. Get your picture taken dressed up as Anne, meet the cast, and more.

Anne-imated is Charlottetown's main event to celebrate the centenary of Lucy Maud Montgomery's novel.

Children of all ages are invited to an Anne & Friends Breakfast at the Confederation Court Mall's Urban Eatery. Children are encouraged to dress up as their favourite Anne character. From there the activities move to the Confederation Centre with an open house and a long list of activities leading up to the gala opening of Anne of Green Gables – The Musical™ that evening.

"We are thrilled to have Gracie Finley as our Honourary Chair for June 14's festivities," says David MacKenzie, CEO of the Confederation Centre of the Arts. "Many people will remember Gracie fondly as Anne from 1968-74 and again in 1984 and 1985. She remains the only Islander to ever play Anne on the Mainstage."

Finley, whose career has taken her across Canada, the U.S. and to Europe, now resides in England. She returns to PEI several times each year and says she is very excited about Anne-imated and all the attention that Anne is receiving this year.
